SUMMARY EXPLANATION
This item is for the proposed update of the Comprehensive Development Plan for the City of North Charleston. The State of South Carolina requires local jurisdictions engaged in land use planning and zoning to prepare and update a Comprehensive Development Plan once every 10 years. The City obtained the services of Robert & Company of Atlanta, Georgia to assist in the update of the plan which is before the Council for First Reading and Public Hearing. The project team hosted a series of Planning and Land Use workshops at various locations around the City to collect public input. The City Staff also worked with a coalition of Neighborhood Association Presidents to generate public participation on the project. The plan update examines Population, Housing, Economic Development, Land Use, Natural Resources, Cultural Resources, Community Facilities, and Transportation. It also includes a section on implementation. The Plan was presented to the public and to the Planning Commission on March 24, 2008. The Planning Commission took the matter up on April 14, 2008 and recommended approval of the Comprehensive Development Plan to City Council. The plan was also presented at a Special City Council Workshop on May 19, 2008 and discussed at the Committee of the Whole meeting on July 16, 2008.

Staff Recommendation: Staff recommended approval.

Board, Commission, Committee Recommendations:
On April 14, 2008, the Planning Commission voted to approve the proposed Comprehensive Development Plan (6-0-0). On June 12, 2008, the City Council held a first reading and public hearing and referred the item to the Committee of the Whole. On July 16, 2008, the Committee of the Whole voted to recommend approval contingent upon the addition of some clarifying language at the introduction to the Implementation Chapter.

The first workshop to review Chapter 10 Implementation is scheduled for Friday, October 17, 2008 in the Coliseum Club North from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
